“Medium” Bread Basket

The medium sized bread basket happened by chance...during a dinner amongst friends and between a few jokes and a few glasses of wine someone said, “try putting some soup in that bread basket”!

Obviously we would be pushing its function to an extreme if we really did use it for soup, but we can guarantee that the baskets maintain their shape and taste great with risotto and hot or cold pasta dishes in general!

It's approximately 5cm in height and weighs 60grs.
